

Small Business BC, in partnership with the public and private sectors, provides comprehensive business information services for entrepreneurs who are starting and growing their businesses.

Have business questions?

Small Business BC can help you with your business inquiries.

Small Business BC can help!

Are you starting or growing a business?

Our Business Team is always ready to discuss your business needs to help you make smart business decisions. They will provide you with information on everything from business start-up, market research, business planning, business name registration, business regulations, financing, loan programs, exporting, government programs and services and much more.

Do you need sources for business research?

Our Resource Library allows you to access over 6,000 business-related publications, directories, handbooks, trade journals, market reports and much more. You can purchase business publications from our onsite Bookstore for self-study as well as conduct research using our computer Public Access Terminals (PAT) for licensed electronic databases and the Internet.

Are you ready for a business plan review?

Our Business Team is available for one-on-one consultations to review your business plan and provide you with constructive feedback, along with receiving ongoing consultation support so that your plan is ready for presentation to potential investors/lenders and implementation.

Are you interested in market research?

Our Market Research Analysts offer customized market reports that analyze the demand, competition, trends and financial characteristics of your business.

Why attend our business seminars?

Our affordable business seminars, presented by qualified advisors and successful entrepreneurs, are designed to assist you with making smart business decisions that will save you time and money. The seminars cover the basics of starting a small business, preparing a business plan, exporting, e-business, market research and many other business-related topics.
